Grace T Greenwood

GRACE is written in a style that reminds me of books by Jodi Piccoul. Author T. Greenwood takes her readers deeply into the lives and minds of her characters as she gradually reveals their personal issues and their often complicated connections.

Grace by T. Greenwood

"T. Greenwood has an uncanny ability to reach into her characters' souls, making them flawed but completely sympathetic. Her latest book Grace deals with a family on the verge of collapse. Their secrets and lies build upon one another until there is nothing left but dust. This searing portrait makes this novel an absolute must-read ...

Grace - T. Greenwood

T. Greenwood is one of my favorite authors. Ever. Period. In this offering "Grace" T. Greenwood brings to the forefront how easily a dysfunctional family can fall prey to those in a small town who do not really understand what's going on with the family as a whole or the individuals that make up the family.

James Patterson is primarily known for his Alex Cross and Women's Murder Club series. The NYPD Red series, which he co-authors with Marshall Karp, is quietly becoming one of the most favoured by readers and the latest book hits bookshelves this month. Karp is an excellent writer and is one of the best series. Only 6 books in so a great series to read over the holiday season.

T. Greenwood - Book Series In Order

Grace is my first read by T. Greenwood. This story is written about a very dysfunctional family, each with their own issues. A family ready to break apart by their own shame. It is heartbreaking and yet thrilling. I look forward to reading more of Miss Greenwood's work. Thank You for sharing with us all.

Grace, Trevor's five-year-old sister, remains the family's only bright spot. As the abuse becomes more extreme, Trevor's life starts to careen out of control. VERDICT Greenwood's harrowing study of a troubled family on the brink of disaster is exceptionally well observed; her skillful use of imagery and foreshadowing sharpens the focus on the Kennedys' dysfunction and avoidance of communication.

The dryad of the greenwood liked to leave her tree sometimes and wander the forest. She loved to stretch down deep into the ground, and talk to other trees through their twining roots, and their susurrations of leaves and branches, but sometimes she got the urge to wander. The greenwood was old and filled with life; deer and squirrel, fox and bird.
